Parental Involvement Pledge

The Parent's Responsibility

I pledge to:

- show my child that I value education by having him/her arrive for school on time and attend regularly
- read to my child regularly to encourage my child to be a reader
- talk to my child about his/her school activities
- visit the school, meet the teacher, learn what the school is doing for my child and how I can take part
- seek information regarding my child's progress by attending conferences with teachers, principals and other school district personnel
- expect my child to conduct himself/herself in an appropriate manner
- discipline my child in a caring way
- participate in parent group (Policy Council, Parent/Teacher workshops, Parent/Teachers) meetings to contribute to the decision-making process at North Early Learning Center
- help my child to recognize that routine healthy behaviors include sleep, rest, exercise, personal hygiene, oral health and proper nutrition
- be responsive to teacher requests and discuss any concerns regarding my child in a responsible manner
- communicate the importance of education by setting high expectations for my child
- model the belief that learning takes place at school and home, and that learning is a life-long process
- communicate positive information regarding teachers, the principal and other campus personnel when discussing school with my child

I pledge to get involved and stay involved, for education is the key to success, and is the greatest gift I can give my child.
